Councilman Oldham stated the July 4th parade had a great turn out of citizens, floats and entries. The cookout put on by Parks & Recreation went smoothly despite the heat and 500 hot dogs were served. City Administrator Kelvin Shaw added the fireworks display was good.

City Attorney Nathan Nickolaus stated Governor Parsons signed House Bill No. 1662 on Thursday, June 29, 2022. This will be an important bill for cities as it cuts home occupation ordinances. If Council doesn't object, a new home occupation ordinance will be drafted for Sedalia. The bill talks about "no impact occupations" which allows an unlimited number of customers/employees in the business/house up to what the Fire Code allows. Certain businesses couldn't be prohibited and hours of operation can't be limited. Councilman Robinson asked if zoning would be involved and City Attorney Nathan Nickolaus said the city is not allowed to require any zoning permits and commercial businesses can now be allowed in any residence within the City.

Councilman Marshall stated he has seen campaign signs in right-of-ways and where they are not allowed. Councilwoman Foster stated it was discussed in committee meeting and it will be addressed. If they are placed improperly they are removed.
