NEWSLETTER FOR THE CITY OF SEDALIA

IN THIS ISSUE

Hello Summer! Time to Explore Your City

Summer has officially arrived, bringing with it sunny days, warm nights, and endless possibilities for fun right here in our own backyard. Whether you're a lifelong resident or new to the area, now is the perfect time to explore everything our City has to offer during this vibrant season.

From concerts at the Fairgrounds to First Thursday's Downtown, summer is packed with local events for every age and interest. Our community calendar is full of activities – check out The Liberty Center's art camps and plays, the Heckart Community Center offers summer programs that are too numerous to mention, or the beloved summer reading program at the library. With something happening almost every week, you won't have to go far to enjoy the best of the season.

Local parks and trails are also calling. Grab your bike, lace up your sneakers, or pack a picnic and spend the afternoon in nature. If you're looking to stay cool, don't forget about the city pool, splash pad, and nearby ponds for fishing. Many local fitness studios also offer classes, giving you a chance to stay active out of the summer heat.

Summer is also the perfect time to support local businesses. Grab a scoop (or two) from an ice cream shop, browse the farmers market for fresh produce, or dine al fresco at one of our local restaurants many patios. Every dollar spent locally helps strengthen our community and keeps our city thriving.

So, get out, soak up the sunshine, and make the most of this exciting season. Follow us on social media or visit our website to stay up to date with events and opportunities. Summer's just getting started – and the fun is right here at home!!
