January 2022

MONTHLY NEWSLETTER FOR THE CITY OF SEDALIA

January is restaurant lover's month, a perfect time to dine at one of Sedalia's many restaurants! The holidays are over; you've cooked many meals and attended several parties. Use this month to pamper yourself and relax! Take a night off from cooking and dine at one of the many fine restaurants that Sedalia has to offer! Whether you are in the mood for BBQ, Mexican, Greek, or Chinese; whatever you desire you are sure to find it. Take this month to visit your favorite restaurant or even try a new one! Make it your New Year's Resolution to treat your palate and try something new. Or maybe you prefer a delicious hamburger like food writer, Calvin Trillin, who thinks "Anybody who doesn't think that the best hamburger place in the world is in his home town is a sissy."

Famed celebrity chef, Mario Batali said, "Although the skills aren't hard to learn, finding the happiness and finding the satisfaction and finding fulfillment in continuously serving somebody else something good to eat, is what makes a really good restaurant." You might try several places before you find that "really good restaurant." Maybe you have more than one "favorite" you might have a family favorite, where you can take the kids or a date night favorite and another that's a favorite when you are out with friends. Whatever the restaurant is, use this month to dine out!

As an added incentive to dine out during the month of January, the Sedalia Shop Local team will randomly select an area restaurant to visit. This visit may be during breakfast, lunch or dinner. The winner will have their meal paid for and their picture taken with our Restaurant Month sign for posting on social media as a way to say thank you to Central Bank, The Missouri Bank, Simmons Bank and Wood & Huston Bank for agreeing to sponsor a week during Restaurant Month. That's 20 restaurants in 20 days of January, excluding the Martin Luther King Day holiday!
